

Metric facilitates appointment of Jeffrey Mason as Vice President of Sales at Samsung Biologics

Metric have partnered with Samsung Biologics, securing senior commercial leadership talent with the successful placement of Jeffrey Mason as Vice President of Sales, America.

New York, December 2025 – New York founded recruitment firm Metric is proud to announce the successful placement of Jeffrey Mason as Vice President of Sales, America at Samsung Biologics. As one of the world’s foremost CDMOs, Samsung Biologics delivers integrated biologics development and manufacturing services to biopharma partners across the globe, with capabilities spanning the full development lifecycle from cell line development through to commercial-scale CGMP manufacturing and aseptic fill/finish.

The search was led by Sam McElroy, Director at Metric Bio.

Reflecting on the process, Jeffrey Mason commented: “I worked with Sam recently and it was a very positive experience, with him placing me in my newest role. He was professional, attentive, and responsive throughout. I would definitely work with him again and would recommend reaching out to him if a vacancy requires filling.”

Speaking of the placement, Sam McElroy commented: “Our partnership with Samsung Biologics is one we value enormously, and placing Jeff as leader of the Samsung Biologics America sales function is a reflection of the trust they place in us to understand their business and find the right people. Identifying commercial talent capable of leading such a high performance team demands genuine CDMO industry knowledge, and Jeff brings exactly the reputation and calibre of experience this role requires.”
