

CurTec appoints Patrick Gordon as Vice President of Sales, Americas in partnership with Metric

Metric has been working closely alongside GMP-certified packaging specialist CurTec in the successful appointment of Patrick Gordon as Vice President of Sales, Americas.

New York, June 2026 – New York-founded recruitment firm Metric is proud to announce the successful appointment of Patrick Gordon as Vice President of Sales, Americas at CurTec. Headquartered in the Netherlands with operations across North America, CurTec designs, manufactures, and distributes high-performance plastic packaging, including drums, pails, and jars, for high-value materials industries. With GMP certification and a strong presence across pharma, specialty chemicals, and additive manufacturing sectors, CurTec's products are trusted by some of the world's most demanding clients to protect and transport critical materials.

CurTec is backed by Ampersand Capital Partners, a private equity firm and valued partner of Metric's. Throughout the search, the Metric team worked closely with Bart van Berkel, CEO of CurTec, and Hidde Van Kerckhoven, Principal at Ampersand, to ensure a thorough understanding of the business's commercial priorities and the profile of leader needed to drive growth across the Americas.

The search was led by Enrico Caterina, Senior Business Development Lead, and Henry Wool, Business Development Manager at Metric.

Reflecting on the process, Patrick Gordon commented: "I highly recommend working with Rico if you want a recruiter who truly advocates for your best interests. During our process, I was actually on the verge of accepting another offer, but he convinced me to keep an open mind and take one more interview... it turned out to be the perfect career fit. Throughout the entire journey, he was incredibly responsive, exceptionally transparent, and kept every single promise regarding timelines. Thanks to his dedicated preparation, support, and negotiation skills, I secured an amazing offer that hit all my targets."

Speaking of the placement, Enrico Caterina commented: "It was a genuine pleasure to have led this search and to have partnered with a business like CurTec, whose products sit at a critical point in the pharma and specialty chemicals supply chain. Patrick's commercial pedigree and deep understanding of the North American market make him an excellent fit to lead the North American commercial team as the new VP of Sales. We look forward to seeing the impact he has as CurTec continues to grow its presence across the Americas."
